“ Always will be grateful for such an amazing and sweet uncle—who patiently put up with all the Spanish speaking, always was there for the most important events usually with a limo at our disposal, who made every effort to spend time his family, and who had the best jokes. We will miss you so much, Uncle Louis.

“ I met Lewis several years ago when his mom was residing at Inspired living, Rachel was afflicted with Alzheimer's as was my dear friend Sue. Rachell and Sue hit it off immediately and became best of friends and remained friends until they both passed. Lewis, working diligently to run his family business without his mother, while continuing to be a great and devoted husband and loving father. Somehow Louis always found time each and every day to visit his mom, frequently staying for hours and other times for just a few minutes. Louis was a wonderful son. Over the years Louis and I became great friends, I considered Louis as my third son and often told him how proud I was of him. Like his family, his best friend Berry and most everyone who ever had the opportunity to meet Louis I will miss Louis' warmth, positive and loving personality and generosity. Louis may be gone from this earth but Louis and his loving manor will never be forgotten! Rest is Peace my friend I love you
