

Louise P Crincoli

March 16, 1955 - October 27, 2018

Louise P. Crincoli, age 63 of Orlando, Florida passed away Saturday October 27, 2018. Louise was born in Brooklyn, New York on March 16, 1955.

She was a breath of fresh air and made an impression on all who knew her. She was not only an amazing wife to Emilio, but an astonishing mother, grandmother and sister. Louise is survived by her loving husband of 30 years; daughters: Jacqueline Caraballo (Jay), Jennifer Gonzalez (Michael), Christina Fresse (Gabe), Adriana Crincoli (Bryan); step-children: Vito and Anjelica; brother: Ralph DeMarco; sister: JoAnne Marshall (Alan) and 7 grandchildren: Michael, Mia, Gianna, Gabriel, Jonathan, Dominic & Elena.

Louise's smile could brighten the darkest room and her laugh was contagious. She was sweet with a little bit of spice. Louise was the type of person that you always wanted to be around. She was fun, loving & caring.

They say God takes the good ones early. God definitely picked a GREAT one the day he decided to take Louise. She will be thought of every single day and will be remembered by all who knew her. Until we meet again...

“ I met Louise 7 years ago while working at Macys and she became a very close friend of mine. She was so much fun. Spicy with a great sense of humor and a great smile I loved our times together laughing, shopping, beach, talking politics etc. All of us at Macys loved her. She was the heart and soul of her family and she loved them with everything she had. My heart breaks for Emilio and her daughters and the rest of her family. Heaven gained a beautiful angel and I know she will always be watching over her family. Louise, its so hard for me to believe you're gone. I will always miss you. Rest in peace my dear dear friend.

“ I live directly across the street from Louise's childhood home in Brooklyn. Our parents were very close friends. I can still envision sitting on the stoop, parties in her basement and playing in the huge backyard with Louise and Jo-Anne. Brownie, Girl Scouts, graduation from Immaculate Heart of Mary School are just some of the memories embedded in my mind. The grocery store her parents owned on the opposite corner is long gone, but I still have fond memories of it. Life is absolutely so unfair. A beautiful, vibrant woman who loved much, and was loved much was taken from this world way too soon. My heart breaks for Emilio and the girls. May Louise's memory live on in you all forever. Rest in peace my childhood friend.

“ I remember as kids my brother Frank and I spent a lot of time with Louise and Joanne. We would try to play the organ and played school on the blackboard in the front hall at Aunt Marion’s House. I remember the basement with the sad Keane-type clown pictures (I think they were clowns) and the paneling. And I’m not forgetting the monster that lived in the dark part of the basement that Louise and Frank used to scare us with.

And we’d also be playing outside Aunt Sarah’s House, walking on that little ledge under the house in the tunnel/driveway or in the basement. I also remember when we were trying to learn the Hustle in the disco era, when Louise would roll her hair into that one huge curler on top of her head. Then there were the holidays and various occasions we’d spend together, as well as being in the pool in the summer and getting that great breeze on the backyard porch. I will always think fondly of Louise and our times growing up together. She was a great mom, grandmother, sister, wife friend and cousin and she will be greatly missed but will be in good company in Heaven, enjoying Aunt Marion’s manicotti and crumb cake and laughing with all the family. Much love to all and Rest In Peace.

“ Louise had a lot of spice! That’s why I loved her so much. She was from Long Island and I was from Jersey. So you can only imagine. She made my days at Macy’s memorable ones, and always a little brighter. She loved her family. I always admired her for that. A true Italian mother. I will miss you Lou, you were an amazing woman, thank you for being my friend.
