March 19, 1941 - April 16, 2018

Louise Johnson was born March 19, 1941 in Orlando, Florida to Willie and Mable Huntly. Louise attended School in Orange County, City of Orlando, Florida.

From an early age her life was centered in Christ. She was a longtime faithful member of Mt. Avery Missionary Baptist Church where she sang in the "Senior Choir". Her love for God kept her strong.

She was also a master seamstress. She dedicated her life caring for others. She was mother to so many and a foster grandmother to hundreds of kids. She was very loving, outgoing, encouraging, and didn't mind sharing a spiritual word, aka "Bible Beater" but loved by all who knew her.

What she enjoyed more than anything was spending precious time with family, friends, and great grand "McKenzie".

Louise was preceded in death by several loved ones.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: Special Friend Mr. William Gardner of Orlando Florida; Son: Roosevelt Gibson (Deborah) of Apopka, Florida; Brother: Arthur Huntly and Richard Huntly of Orlando, Florida; Sisters: Lillie Whitfield and Luvenia Jenkins (Harry) of Orlando, Florida; Grandchildren:
