

Lucette Knight Nelson

September 7, 1949 - May 17, 2026

Lucette was a beloved mother, sister, family member, friend, and a deeply cherished presence in the lives of those who knew her. She was loved for her strength, her heart, her humor, and the way she cared for the people closest to her. Her life was marked by devotion to her family, resilience through difficult times, and a love that will continue to be felt long after her passing.

She is survived by her children, Jesse Nelson and Steven Nelson; her sister, Huguette Dawe; her brother, Clifford Knight; her grandson Tori Lee Nelson Linklater; and her daughter-in-law, Laura Nelson, along with extended family and friends who loved her dearly.

Her memory will live on through the stories shared, the lessons she gave, and the love she poured into those around her.

Lucette's family takes comfort in knowing that she is now at peace. She will be deeply missed and forever loved.

In honor of Lucette, those who knew her are invited to remember her with kindness, love, and a moment of gratitude for the time they shared with her.

*My husband and I took a vacation trip to Montreal in 2015. I mentioned I would love to have a friend from such a lovely and enchanting city. The next year I met Lucette my future Best Friend 🤗
Oh how I miss you 😔 my heart is broken but also I feel a peace that I had met such a great lady. Your kindness and bright light spoke louder than words. RIP BF see you in Heaven 🙏🙏🙏*

“Lucette was my very first friend when I moved to Orlando, and from the beginning she welcomed me with kindness and warmth. She was always there for me during some of the hardest times in my life, never hesitating to help whenever I needed it. When I had no car, she would give me rides home without ever making me feel like a burden. She had such a caring heart and always treated my kids like they were her own, constantly baking for them and making them feel loved. Lucette’s kindness, generosity, and beautiful spirit will never be forgotten. My deepest condolences go out to her family and everyone who had the blessing of knowing her. She will truly be missed.”
