Made this video so long ago. Aunt Lois took a good smack on the head when the roof came down and the brothers and sisters at the congregation banded together to get the roof replaced before Ivan came along. What a year!

“ How grateful we were to be able to spend a couple days together just a few weeks ago! I could still see the spark of humour in his eyes, and a twinkle of joking in his voice! Wonderful memories.

“ Uncle Lyle... There are so many memories as we grew up closely with you and Aunt Lois. Life has a way of seperating us from those we love and well in death the memories keep us connected. Rest in Peace Uncle Lyle. God bless you and your kindness and dedication to dear Aunt Lois all your years. Miss you BOTH.

“ Grandpa, you were the best helper I could have ever found. I was lucky to know you. You worked very hard trying to help me. Sorry about the water heater. It was too complicated for us both. Rest now. You have proven yourself a great man.
