We Chi Omegas of the mid 1950s are just learning of Lynda's death. Her physical health may have failed her but her mind was still sharp when last we communicated. Many memories over lots of years and almost all of them bring about lots of laughs. Lynda had the quickest and most focused wit of anyone ever. She was the best.

“ Tish and Mac,
I just recently learned of the death of your Mom. Her friend Raven sent me an email. She had been keeping a few of us Chi Omegas up on how she was doing. We, Chi Omega sisters, loved her so much and we always remember her fondly when we see each other. My sincerest condolences.
