“ *When the enemy death strikes your grief can be great. It's never the right time to say goodbye to a loved one. Death too to many seems to be a part of life. It's during times such as these that we can find comfort in the Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:9, 10 ~ "Our Father in the heavens, let your name be sanctified. Let your kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also upon earth". Only God's (Psalms 83:18) Kingdom can bring peace, happiness, perfect health, and everlasting life. “ I'm so sorry for your loss! In these times of deep sorrow God's word provides so much comfort. Revelation 21:4 promises a time when pain and sorrow will be of the past. I hope that it gives you as much comfort as it has me in these difficult times.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Lynette's passing. We remember Lynette as a kind, happy go lucky kind of person, who always made you laugh and feel better. We saw her last in November of 2012. We knew she wasn't feeling well, but she did not tell us how serious things were. I wish we'd had the chance to say goodbye. She was a wonderful person, I will always remember the love and positivity coming from her. I am so sorry for your loss Moe and family. We will miss her greatly.

“ My condolences to to the of Ms. Sajjad.I am very sorry to hear about your loss. In this trying time, May you find comfort in God's Word the Bible, as you draw ever closer to our Heavenly Father Jehovah God. Your love ones ARE asleep. Add Acts 24:15 there is going to be a "resurrection hope". As God's Word the Bible speaks of a time when you will and can see your love ones once again. Forever on a Paradise Earth! My condolences, peace and blessings, my deepest sympathy. Jas.4:8, 2Thess.2:16,17, Psm.34:18

“ Lynette was my lovely sweet Niece, she was always the life and soul of every time we met at a family get together, which unfortunately wasn't as often enough as I would have liked it to happen. The last time I saw Lynette was in 2010 when I came over for Monique's graduation, we all had a great time for the duration of my stay at her house, I was made very welcome and and that is something I will always remember. All of Lynette's extended family back here in England are all extremely saddened by her untimely passing from this world. But her happy memorie's will live on in all of our hearts forever. So good bye my sweet Niece, all your pains and discomforts are over, so go! "Rest in peace". Love you. Tony.

“ You and Monique were some of the dearest friends our daughter had in Springfield. The time you took to be a Girl Scout leader, the limo rides, all of the sharing you did.

Sorry to see you go so soon! The loss of even one kind-hearted soul on earth gives us all pause to remember and appreciate the goodness that lives among us.

Missing you already...

“ There was not another person in this world that was more loving than my friend Lynette. She was the most caring, loving person I ever met. Unselfish never complained and a pure JOY to be with. My heart aches for her family for I know how much I will miss her and they got to be with her everyday what an hole in their hearts that only will be filled when they meet again.

She had the most wonderful parties and I was so privledged to be a part of them.

Will miss her dearly....Love Leah

“ Lynette, my dearest, I am so sorry that I had not realized how unwell you were this past year. Please forgive me for this callousness. I have always loved you and will never be able to forget you. You have been the best sister in law that anyone can wish for, with kind words and actions for everyone who crossed your path. You stood by all of us bravely, with laughters and compassion. You shared your life generously and had love to distribute all around. I am proud to say that you have been a great companion to Sajjad, the best mom a daughter can dream of, a lovely lovely friend to your inlaws and a beautiful human being to people in general. You were special and one of the best. I will always miss you. Love you Lynette. May Allahs blessing be with you.

“ This is a poem dedicated to my Aunt Lynette. God Bless, I miss you

Christmas In Heaven

As Christmas gets closer I begin to realize that it is your first in heaven.

It was not your time to go but, the angels took you anyway.

I still ask myself why?

Why did they have to take you?

We weren't ready to say goodbye.

I never got to say goodbye.

We all miss you.

Family means everything to me.

I just wish you were still here with us.

I miss and love you so much

RIP Aunt Lynette

“ We will miss you Lynette. You have been a pillar of rocks for my family and our hearts are broken. We are forever grateful to have been a part of your world from the first day the kids met you and Max on the street and you asked Chris to walk him. Bill, myself and the kids are deeply saddened. We will miss our Lynette. Your big smile, kind heart and selflessness will never be forgotten. We will treasure the memories shared with you. We love you so much. May God rest your soul in Peace my dear friend....

“ My favorite story she used to tell us in high school was about her telling everyone she swerved to miss a dog after she hit a tree reading a love letter from Sajjad.
