

Mai Chu Claitor

March 25, 1952 - January 13, 2026

In Memoriam

March 25, 1952 – January 13, 2026

Mai Chu Claitor, beloved mother and friend, passed away in Orlando, Florida, surrounded by loved ones and her favorite music. Born and raised in Taipei, Taiwan, she grew up climbing trees, walking miles to school and back, and living a true mountainside farm life with her family.

Mai worked for nearly 30 years as a dedicated and coveted prep cook at Red Lobster. She was sad to retire in 2024 when the restaurant closed.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jeffery Claitor (2021), and her longtime friend and soulmate, Forrest Rau (2022).

Mai is survived by her six children, Wendy and Tony Nemyer, Tony, Timothy, Wendy, and Sharon Claitor; and her two grandchildren, Alexa Delacenserie and Melissa Tobias.

For more than 15 years, Mai lovingly fostered and cared for dozens of cats, finding great purpose in their daily care. She was also an avid gardener who found peace tending her fruit trees and flowers.

Intelligent, humorous, and deeply selfless, Mai's love was felt by all who knew her. She is dearly missed and will forever be remembered.
