“ I remember Margaret being full of life, with a smile ready to share with everyone. We are all on borrowed time and God has a good reason for everything that happens. We are all a part of this web of life. We do not realize how we touched the lives of many people we come in contact with until moments like this. Margaret, you will be missed...

“ I truly was blessed to have such a wonderful friend for the last 10 years. Margaret was joyful, happy, silly, smart, beautiful, and everything in between. She brought so much joy and happiness to everyone she met. She was the best friend ever, we had so many good times together. I truly loved her like my own sister. She would never let anyone be down if she could help it, when she walked into a room her smile lit up everything. She was always there for me and my son. She would come over to my place on her days off and take over the tv and CiCi (the dog). CiCi loved her just as much as she loves me, I can remember when we were going to the airport, and we stopped by the house, Margaret stayed in the car (because she didn't want to upset CiCi), well CiCi seen her out the window, ran out the front door and she ran around that car barking, standing up on her back legs, happy as ever to see Margaret , without her saying a word she was in the car, and when she opened the door it was on. Them two were the best of friends too. (I just wish I would have thought to pull my phone out to capture the moment). Margaret was such a dog lover. Our customers used to bring their dogs to the store for her to see them. And sometimes you couldn't tell who was happier to see who. And she was a good people person, she would talk your ear off if you let her. Heaven received an angel a few days ago that's for sure, and I know when my time comes she'll be waiting at the gate for me with the rest of my family and friends. I miss her so much . Love always, Anita .

“ The great and awesome Margaret has pass away. 22 of June 2015. :(.. I remember your laughter and that smile that just shine across the room, it was everything, I love you cause you kept things real, You spoked your mind and you show me one thing and that one thing was to never have any regrets. Your one soul that I will truly miss.

At work you made my day, shorter. there's not a moment that I can't think of when you didn't make my ass lmao!! So loud.

The only thing that hurts that most is that I wasn't there for you in those last precious moments of life, that you once shared with me and everybody at work.

But don't worry I'll see again. Shortly and soon.
