“ You have my deepest sympathy and empathy in you loss. During such a time I was greatly encouraged by a promise I found in the Bible at Revelation 21:3, 4 where a time will come when we will not experience the suffering that come from this type of tragedy. With this thought in mind I invite you to visit www.jw.org, there you will find more information on Gods promise of the resurrection.

“ Fran and Pam – I have no idea what you must be going through in losing what I think is one of the most important people in any woman’s life. I know your Mom was that to you as well and know that your heart is aching each day. You are both in my thoughts during this time of incredible loss.

“ Dear Fran and Pam:

The picture you selected to post is a beautiful representation of your mother...she was a beautiful women. I'm sorry for your loss - no matter how long we have our mother on this earth, it's never long enough. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you during your time of sorrow as you adjust to a life with out your mother's physical presence. Love to you and your children, Aunt Pat Tedesco in North Carolina.
