“ Dearest Mark.

I so vividly remember you as a young boy with leg braces on. You could run and jump and play as though you never had them on. It was pure sunshine to see the joy in your face as you played and enjoyed life. You were your mother's delight. How proud she always was of all you did.

We will always carry you in our hearts. And we look forward to the time of reuniting with you in the place that has been promised to us all. Meanwhile, since you are now in our God's presence, put in a good word for all those that still have to make their way there.

Peace be with you and yours always. Love, Carmen Colona

“ I had the privilege of being friends with both Mark and his mother Sandy. I first met Mark in 1983 when we both played guitar in the St John Vianney Catholic Church. While I continued playing guitar at the church I was blessed to meet his mother Sandy, who was my choir director for many years. Mark took his musical interests in a different direction. I feel blessed to have been friends with both mother and son, and as being 23 years Mark's elder, I tried to be a mentor and positive role model. I am deeply saddened by his passing at such a young age, as he had most of his whole life ahead of him. RIP Mark. My condolences Sandy and other family members.

“ Way to often we postpone connecting with each other because we believe we will always have time later on. I pray you're at peace, Mark. You made my move to Florida easier... we became friends quickly and you became a good friend. I pray God heals your family's heart. May HE grant them peace knowing you are no longer suffering. Strength, to deal with the emotional toll. And understanding. God bless you always!!

“ When someone we love dies, it leaves a hole in our hearts. This sorrow was felt by Jesus, Mary and Martha when Lazarus their brother died. Jesus said to Martha: “I am the resurrection and the life, the one who exercises faith in me even though he dies, will come to life. Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?” Then he proceeded to resurrect Lazarus and he promises to resurrect all those in the memorial tombs. Please read John 5:28, 29 in your Bible and may this hope bring your family comfort. www.jw.org
