“ Mark was my first foreman at 5 th ave depot Brooklyn ny nycta Jan 1985
I knew his wife and kids
Loved hunting
He was a marine and removed the bodies from the jungle Guyana from Jones town
I even drove a bus for him in 1988
He was a great guy a WILD and crazy guy
Would do any thing for you
We will turn wrenches again in heaven

“ When you met Mark he made you feel like you knew each other for a long time. He spoke of his wife and family alot and shared who they are. He was very proud of his family. He was a dedicated Manager for LYNX. While he was in treatment he called each day to make sure everything was good at work. Marks professionalism and dedication was one of a kind. He will be missed in life!
