“ Dear Nancy & Milan & family,

I only knew your mom for one brief evening....we sat together at your wedding reception dinner. We didn't speak much with the language barrier, but we understood one another, in spirit. She kept saying what a good son you are, Milan. She was very proud of you. She held tightly to my hand during most of dinner, and later as everyone was dancing. I wish I had known her better. She seemed to be a dear, warm woman. I only knew her briefly, but I fell in love with her. I will hold her memory in my heart, fondly, forever.

How fitting that she left this world to be with Jesus on Resurrection Sunday.

Praying for all of you during your time of grieving. Love, Nancy McFadden
