“ The first time I met Aunt Lynn: she was tall, gorgeous in heels. I thought she was the sexiest woman I had ever seen. Her personality was as beautiful as her physical beauty. Fun loving and a dynamo.

“ I remember so much of this fantastic woman, it's hard to pick one. I guess the one that means the most to me is when I was living with my mother stepfather and half sister. My mom left with my half sister and left me there with a crazy man. Mama Lyn would not stand for it..she told Teri, "load up Teri we are going to go get her, she is going to live with us" and she did! She would take no refusal. I was 17 I think. She saved my life. ..literally. I loved her so much and always will. Her heart was made of gold..I love you and miss you mama Lyn..thank you for being in my life and letting me be a part of yours. God speed mama.

“ Last Fight

*A face that is always on my mind,
A smile I have seen a million times,
Two eyes that would light up the sky at night,
One last battle you could not fight.
I knew that soon you would be gone,
Soon we would be out of time,
To stay with us you fought so hard,
A million pieces went my heart,
Now a photo I look at to see your smile,
I keep your number on my speed dial,
A video I watch to hear your voice,
This I do.... I have no choice.,
But great memories I will always keep with me,
Your love in my heart for eternity,
I never got to say goodbye,
To understand why, I can but try,
Waiting in heaven from this moment on,
'Till god asks you to bring me home....*

I love you Mom XOXOXO

She was so proud of her children and her grandchildren!! She loved every second of being a mother and grandmother. She and I shared so much together. I am going to miss our long talks, I miss my big sis.
