“ I did my student teaching in Mrs. Goins' fourth grade classroom forty-two years ago. Since then I taught fourteen years, was principal seventeen years, and next month will begin my tenth year teaching for Indiana University. Mrs. Goins was a wonderful mentor and a major influence on my life. I have always regretted losing touch with her. There are so many words to describe Mrs. Goins. I will use two, Pure Class.

“ Mrs. Goins was my 4th and 5th grade teacher. I liked all my teachers, but she was one of my favorites. One of my favorite memories wasn't while she was my teacher, though. I was an adult and she chased me through Sears calling my name after she recognized my mom. She just wanted to say "HI". I think of her often.

“ Our deepest sympathy to all of the GOINS family. My name is Barb Wilmoth, and I live in West Palm Beach, Florida. I grew up as Barb Jay, my parents, Neal & Virginia Jay. Jan, are you a graduate of Selma High School? If so, you will know Mom, or Mama Jay as she was known. I saw your Mom's notice in the Muncie Star/Press this morning, and had to write to you.
