

Mary Carla Young

August 31, 1968 - April 13, 2013

Formerly of Erie, Pennsylvania Carla passed away at her home in Orlando, FLA surrounded by family. She was a loving/caring child. Those and many other good traits followed her into adulthood.

Carla graduated from McDowell High School in Erie, PA then went onto graduate from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in Indiana, PA.

Her degree was in early childhood education.

Shortly after college Carla moved to the Orlando area to pursue her career.

Once there she worked in daycare for a short time. Her next path lead her to Disney World where she performed as various characters around the park including Minnie Mouse. She then went to Universal Studios and worked on the Jaws ride and moved to VIP Tours and Registration until her passing.

Somewhere in amongst Disney and Universal she worked at Sea World with children. Carla also volunteered at Theatre Downtown on 2113 N. Orange Ave. Orlando, FL 32804. Carla loved the theater and was involved in twenty plus productions.

Sadly Carla's battle with cancer and treatments caused severe damage to her other organs. However, it did not ever destroy her positive attitude or her caring about others difficulties or problems.

Carla is survived by her parents(Alan Keith and Mary Ellen), one brother and sister-in-law(Brian and Jayme). Several nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles. Not to forget all of her friends.

We will miss you Carla but will never forget you. You are a true hero to so many people.

“ After almost 30 years of not seeing each other, it was so nice to find out you lived here in Orlando:) By the time we got together again, you had already been diagnosed, but you NEVER let it stop you from living your life! Your courage and strength inspired me every day; and despite all you were going through you were a great support to me when my dad got sick. I was so grateful for the time we were able to spend together...and I will miss your sweet disposition. Rest in peace my friend:(

“ I remember a few years back after you came to work in Scheduling with me and we had a blast. Every day we were laughing and joking because that is really what work is all about. About a week after you left Entertainment to go back to Ops (only because they made you) Stacie and I decided to visit you at your office atop Boulangerie. We missed you and knew you did not have the raucous fun at VIP that we had shared with you for quite a long time. Walking into the office Stacie and I made little giggles and off comments as we strode to your desk surprising you with our impromptu visit. We tried to be quite but hey...we're entertainment! Walking through T-65 with bull horns blaring is precisely what we do! I think you heard our laughs and somehow knew that we were coming for you. After 5 minutes of joking and laughing we were ever so kindly asked to take our laughter and good time elsewhere, we really were quite loud! For the next 30 minutes we sat outside talked and laughed so hard we almost wet ourselves. We reminisced about Apocalyptic Thursdays (I don't think we ever got rid of all of the hole punches we dumped in that cube), the dregs of Payroll Monday's and of all of the good times we shared together.

I will never forget you, I will never forget our fun, laughter, (this story) or they way that you walked through life battling every mountain as though it were not but a mere hill. Your laughter lives on though the Scheduling team and me. I will miss you dearly but will search you out on the other side of the mountain!

*Until we meet again;
