“ It's been a long time since I've known Matt Walker, but as I remember him, he was a very kind person with many friends, deservedly so. I am so saddened to hear of this news and especially sorry for his loved ones that proceed him. Sending good thoughts and wishing comfort in this time and always.

Beth Johnson - July 30, 2015 at 12:17 AM

“ Matt...I really still cannot believe this has happened. Sadly God had other plans for you and I'm sure they are as important if not more as they were while you were here with us. We will all miss you so very much. You have truly left a huge impact on so many people's lives & I hope you know just how loved & important you are to so many. You are truly one of a kind and will always be in our hearts forever. We will hold our memories tightly, Until we meet again my friend.

Christina Lambert - July 29, 2015 at 11:29 PM

“ I wanted to take the time to tell all of you how much the family has appreciated your texts, messages, phone calls, donations to the "girls future fund", stories, etc. The family is in the final stages of planning his "FAMILY AND FRIENDS GET TOGETHER". We are so excited to celebrate Matthew's life with all of you!!! We will keep everyone updated on the details....If any of you would like to help with the Celebration --- my brother Shawn is in charge of the celebration and would love to hear from you. Keep the stories, photos, videos, etc. coming --- it's a great way to keep his memory alive and help all of us heal from such a traumatic loss!!!

“ Whenever Mathew's father and I saw him, I would hug him and tell him his father always loves him, and once again I am saying to Mathew remember your father always loves you - and I do too - Robbin Walker

Robbin Mason Walker - July 28, 2015 at 09:52 AM

“ If only we could go back in time while listening to Stanton Warriors and remember the good times. You have brought us so many smiles and become apart of the joy in our hearts. We love you now and from a distant Matt! Patrick and I will miss you dearly. Until we meet again...

John 14:1-4 “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God!; believe also in me. My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going.”

“ My dear friend, words cant express the heavy heart I have. We had so many laughs, crys and shannaigans. My brother from another mother. Life got in the way many times but we always managed to stay in touch. You were an amazing soul and a friend til the end of times. You definitely recieved your angel wings. I know you are cracking them up and will have a blast up there. Gone too soon thats for sure, but GOD only takes the best right. Your family, Erin and the girls will be in my prayers. I know you are watching over them always. You were such a proud dad! RIP my friend, until we meet again. Much love always.

“ Matt was always very kind and giving to those around him.. I have many fond memories of Matt when we went to UHS.. Rest in peace my dear friend.. Your laughter and kindness will be sorely missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family..

Meri Bandy - July 26, 2015 at 07:35 AM

“ I remember the first time I met Matt. Blowing up sales at the West Oaks Mall. If it weren't for him (and his brother of course), I would still be a shy, quiet, terrible salesman. He took me under his wing and created a monster! He always had time to listen, to teach, and to make the glass look half full. He was truly an inspiration to me. He bent over backwards to help me on more than one occasion; and I am eternally grateful. I know he is watching over us from heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. God Bless all of you!!

“ Matt was such a great friend to me. From the time we met at 5 years old we had fun together. We had mud fights and played on his fort in his back yard. We swam and fished in my grandmas back yard. We played manhunt through our whole neighborhood. We would skate everywhere. Even from Conway to Wekiva springs. Some of the greatest times of my life were had then. We lost contact for a little bit but finally got in touch again. It was like we never stopped talking only we were older and had families. We went camping with our families. We went swimming with our families. We went to the Scottish Highland Games with our families. I loved spending time with him and his family. He was an amazing person who knew how to have fun and smile. He brought smiles to every ones face. I'm going to miss talking about the old days with him. I'm going to miss hearing his voice and seeing his smile. He was my friend and brother and I am going to miss him so much. I am completely crushed by the loss of this amazing person I grew up with. With many tears and a broken heart, I Love You

Beautifully written, Ryan and so glad you two reconnected in your adult life!! I, too, remember the skateboarding, the basketball games (sometimes against my carport walls), the hidden fort at the lake. I remember because my house was the one you guys always raided for snacks and drinks. I know Jesse wishes he had stayed more connected with his neighborhood friends, not just on f/b, but in real life. I am still very close to my first best friend from when we were 5 years old, she was my next door neighbor. I am so sorry for his passing, but we must believe he has gone on to much greater things...

“ Matt is an old friend of mine. We grew up together. My summers as a kid were spent with him, his brother, his sisters, and parents. Matt was a kind soul who made friends with everyone. My memories of him will always be that of a brother. I don't cry much; today i cry.

Mark Neely - July 25, 2015 at 10:14 PM

“ I remember in highschool Matt was the cool popular kid that was friends with everyone. I was getting picked on by some bullies and he stepped in and stopped it. He did t even know who I was back then. Then years later it turns out the my man has been best friends with him since they were five and we became good friends. Crazy how the world turns. I am blessed to call Matt my friend. Till the world turns again my friend. Love you.

“ Matthew comforted me at a time that I was struggling with grief. I will always remember Matt as an Angel who brought compassion and kindness. I am so sorry for your great loss. Sending love and prayers.

“ I still cannot believe you're gone. We have so many memories together. How about playing on the dirt hills or fishing AT Ryans grandmothers house or rocking out to Guns and Roses and Beastie Boys on an old abandoned car. Playing war in the woods going to Dover Shorest pool all summer long. The list just goes on and on. I have to say that was one of my happiest times of my life living in that neighborhood hanging out with you guys. I'm so sorry your gone. Grateful to have known you and called you my friend. May God bless your girls.

Love always,
Shannan

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

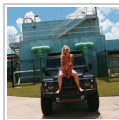

slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived as finally together is unaltered, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. When we forced air of solemnity or sadness. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, walk, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be over the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unshakable continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere near you. You missed the moment. All is well.

Jenny Crandall - July 25, 2015 at 06:20 PM

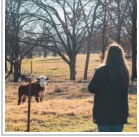

That was beautifully said

Shannan Leffel Ritter - July 25, 2015 at 06:42 PM

“ Please be advised that we will not be having a Funeral Service for Matthew. In his memory, Matthew's family will be planning a "FAMILY AND FRIENDS GET TOGETHER". Of course, this gathering will be held in CONWAY. And of course, with lots of "SNACKIES and DRINKIES". The family will post more details - such as date and time soon.

IN LIEU OF FLOWERS OR GIFTS....the family has set up a "go fund me" page for the raising of funds to go to his two daughters, Rylie and Raegan. Copy the link below and paste in your browser address to access this site, if you wish to donate.

Do you know what happened?

Melissa Coleman - July 25, 2015 at 07:02 PM

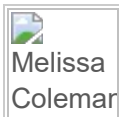

The cause of death is still unknown. He was found last night by my mother. He was in bed.

Jenny Crandall - July 25, 2015 at 07:43 PM

"Snackies and drinkies" sounds like a Matt saying... Miss him

Trish Anderson - July 25, 2015 at 08:05 PM
