

Maximina Claudio

July 30, 1948 - June 20, 2026

With profound sadness we inform you that Maximina Claudio affectionately known as Maxine, age 77 of Orlando, Florida passed away on June 20, 2026.

Maxine was the heart of her family and the cornerstone of her community. She lived a life defined by strength, resilience, generosity, and unconditional love. To know Maxine was to know what it felt like to be welcomed home. Her door was always open, her kitchen was always full, and there was always room for one more at her table. She was not only a devoted mother to her own children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren—who were the absolute joy of her life—but a mother figure to countless others. She helped raise nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, offering guidance, comfort, and love wherever it was needed.

A breast cancer survivor and a woman who overcame countless obstacles throughout her life, Maxine faced every challenge with remarkable courage and determination. Her strength inspired those around her, and her faith, perseverance, and unwavering spirit carried her through even the most difficult seasons.

More than anything, Maxine will be remembered for the love she gave so freely. Her home was home base, her embrace was a place of comfort, and her presence made people feel safe, seen, and cared for. The legacy she leaves behind is not only in the family she cherished, but in the countless lives she touched through her kindness, generosity, and boundless love.

Though she will be deeply missed, her memory will live on in every family gathering, every shared meal, every story told, and every act of love inspired by the extraordinary woman she was.
