“ Lamento mucho el terrible momento que experimenta tras la partida de un su ser amado. En lo personal me a tocado vivirlo 8 veces, la Biblia me lleno de esperanza al saber que algun dia los volveria abrazar. Tambien para usted la palabra de Dios puede llegar a serles un refrigerio y ayudarles a sobrellevar dicha pena. Juan 5:28 nos asegura que volveremos a ver a los que ya han muerto, “Viene la hora en que todos los que están en las tumbas conmemorativas oirán su voz y saldrán,” “va a haber resurrección así de justos como de injustos”. (Hechos 24:15.) Y él limpiará toda lágrima de sus ojos, y la muerte no será más, ni existirá ya más lamento ni clamor ni dolor. Las cosas anteriores han pasado.”—Rev. 21:3, 4. Y que maravilloso que ya no tengamos que temer la muerte, La Biblia dice: “Como el último enemigo, la muerte ha de ser reducida a nada” (1 Corintios 15:26). Isaías 25:8 leemos que Jehová “realmente se tragará a la muerte para siempre”: ¡Qué buena noticia! Que la paz de Dios continúe con usted y su familia.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Cuqui or as I have always called her Cookie. Some of my best memories were not about what we did or where we went (I have those memories too), but, they were about things we talked about and things we shared. I did not have a biological sister but Cookie was the sister that I never had. We would get together and we would stay up late and have late night chat sessions about everything and laugh, sometimes all night long! She was a good friend and confidant! She was sweet and kind! She always had a smile on her face! I will miss her deeply! She will always be in my heart!
