“ All my memories of Megan are sunshine and smiles! From that darling little girl who used to come in her Mom's (Phyllis) classroom after school with her sweet sister, Brittani, to the beautiful, kind and funny young woman she grew up to be. I'm so glad she found the love of her life, Chad, even though their time on earth was cut short. She let me borrow her blue ribbon that she won in lead-line at the horse show so I could do a "photo-opt" with my horse to post on FB since we didn't even get a participation ribbon! LOL.

“ Megan was truly a sweet person. She had a great love of her family and friends and had a wonderful smile. She loved family traditions and celebrating the holidays. It's difficult to imagine our family gatherings without her. Prayers to my brother Chad, who not only lost his spouse but his best friend. May all family and friends find comfort and peace.

“ Megan and Chad were my neighbors for many years until September 2018 when I moved to another location in Orlando. So many fond memories we shared including boat rides on the lake, long days at the pool, sharing dinners with friends. Megan's bright smile will be missed but not forgotten. My heart goes out to Chad, Phyllis, Duane and all of Megan's family.

“ My favorite story with Mega and Chad follows: they needed to travel to Ohio because Chad's relative died. They asked me to take care of their cat and gold fish. Cat was not a problem, it was the gold fish. I did my best but it died. So I bought a new gold fish hoping they would not notice but it died too. So I came clean when they came home and we all laughed. Please don't a ask me to take care of your gold fish again. Megan says, not a problem. True to form, they went on a weekend trip and ask me to look out for the cat. I said yes, but no gold fish. Laughing again, Megan says we are taking the gold fish with us. Oh good. I said. Don't know how that turned out but at least it did not die on my watch. Wonderful neighbors. I shall miss her terribly. Enjoy those streets of gold Love you...
