

Mellon Jean Baker

November 11, 1947 - July 15, 2022

Mellon Jean Baker's Life Summary

Mellon Jean Baker was born on November 11, 1947 in Belle Glade, Florida to the late James T. Ellick and Mary Dunlap Ellick. She was raised and educated in Belle Glade at Lake Shore High School. Mellon was a migrant farm worker and Crew Leader. She and her crew traveled throughout the United States. She loved God, her family and community, and became known as "Mama Betty." Well known for cooking and feeding her family, church family, and friends, Mama Betty was a mother to many. She never met a stranger, and greeted everyone with a smile, so it would be fitting that now we keep a smile on our faces in memory of her.
