“ I love you so much. I think about you every single day. It's been over a year since you've left all of us and I can't change my wallpaper of you, can't change my Instagram photo from having you in it. I can't open the closet with your shirts and things that smell like you in it. Everything I do I'll do with love for you and so much pain having to do it with just a memory of you. This isn't what our plans were and this isn't how it was suppose to be! I hate this so much. I just keep waiting still for you to call me or knock on my door. I can not wait till we see each other again

“ I worked at Forever21 with Melvin at one point and during that time he definitely was the absolutely best person looking forward to for any of my shifts , we spent so many long hours there and he was nothing less of a great friend , listening ear and life of the party . I am deeply saddened and will continue to pray for him and his family

“ Ugh Mel Mel 😭 I miss you so much. I love you and I’m so grateful for the time, laughs, and memories I get to keep. Thanks for getting me through high school. Thanks for always looking out for me, thanks for doing all the first festivals with me, thanks for getting Anthony his job. Last time we spoke I wrote you something along the lines of this and I just hope you know I meant it with all my love. I’m so sorry you didn’t get more time but I’m expecting you in the next life, to cause havoc in my life and then lightening it up with your humor again.

“ My Melvin, my best friend, my brother thank you for being my rock through everything, for being the best uncle and the most selfless friend. I hope you always knew how much I loved you and always always will. Your beautiful face, laugh, energy and personality will be missed every single second of everyday and nothing is going to even be the same for me. You saved me in so many ways and for that I am forever grateful and indebted to you. Until we reunite I will cherish all our beautiful memories forever and I hope you visit me and Anastasia any chance you get and continue to watch her grow up. My beautiful friend I love you forever and always
