“ I have known Micah since High school and we have had many laughs throughout the years. He was truly one of the most kind and fun loving people I have ever known. Always with a joke and a story about his life. He loved his boys so much and was so proud of both of them. We never had a conversation when he did not talk about their lives and accomplishments. He always said they were so much smarter than he ever was and will do amazing things. I also remember when he met Sheryl and told me about her, he said she was the hardest working woman he has ever met and he was excited to marry her.
I will miss my friend but take comfort knowing he can now fish and surf pain free and with no worries.

“ I worked with Micah for several years. He was an excellent Funeral Director who was respected by the thousands of families he served. My sympathies to his family.

“ Oh my...the fishing trips were never dull with Micah! One time on Wekiva heading to the boat ramp, which is upstream, Micah said we're out of gas!
Sheryl: your joking right??
Micah: Not kidding!
As we float backwards down stream towards the bank...Oh my God Micah "gator gator gator get us out of here! As we hit the bank Micah got the rope tied us to a tree branch. Of course it was a fancy boy scout knot. He tipped the gas tank on it's side and got ole ketchup and mustard (name of boat) started.
Micah: Sheryl untie that knot let's get out oh here.
Sheryl: Screw that the branch is dead I'll kick the branch just get me out of here!
So with the branch and rope off we go! Holy Toledo what a day that was! I'll never forget our fishing excursions! I Love You Micah!

“ Micah, Sheryl, Cameron & Blake visited me in Wisconsin in July 2009. I will always cherish & remember that time together. The boys were awestruck by the amount of corn fields. We were able to attend a family reunion, attend a Brewer game & visit Lake Michigan. It was also on this visit that I learned that Micah was a "yoyo" champion. He could make that yoyo do tricks I have never seen before. He was quite entertaining & only when the clock struck midnight I said "Enough". Yes he was one of a kind & will always be remembered. Rest In Peace my dear Micah. Jessica Boebel

“ My partner in crime..... the amount of shenanigans and laughs and tears we had together while working in the Funeral Business together will honestly forever bring a smile to my face. I can't tell you how many times we saved each others asses.....lol
Micah was a one of a kind dude, no doubt. The tenderness he truthfully gave to each of the families he served came from the same heart that his immense sense of humor did. I have never met his boys in person, but I do want them to know, I knew them. The sun rose and fell on those boys, always, always, ALWAYS. Micah couldn't wait to tell a story about his kids... the funny ones and the ones I watched his hands go through his hair 25 times....lol. One day we were standing out back smoking after lunch and talking about work, kids, etc.... I asked if he thought if either of the boys would be Directors. He said he didn't know, but it made no difference to him. Micah said he just wanted them to be the best people and do what makes them happy, whatever that it is. I remember when he met Sheryl..... AND I remember when they got married. Talk about a guy walking on cloud nine? He honestly adored and loved her... and was so tickled to have found someone who loved him for him.
I was fortunate to have the opportunity to speak with Micah not to long ago. Contacting me was a gift he gave me, and I am forever grateful . He just wanted to talk before he couldn't anymore and just wanted to say I love you my friend.
Sheryl please call me anytime you want to talk or want an ear to bend. While your heart and the boys hearts are broken hold on to knowing that Micah is not suffering anymore. Take some comfort in knowing he is free from cancer. And, know with out any doubt, that he will never be to far from any on you.

“ So Sorry to hear the news about Micah. Prayers to Sheryl, his Boys, and his Family,, I have known Micah for 20+ years. Fellow Kiwanis Member, Neighbors, and our Kids played together. Just wanted to share one of the funniest stories about Micah,, Years ago he had participated in a Super Bowl Pool at our favorite near by Pub. As the games first quarter came to an end, he announced that he had won the 1st quarter and proceeded to by the bar a round of drinks, same thing at the end of the 3rd and 4th quarters,, He said it was the luckiest day of his life and of course he was a Huge Star at the Bar after buying 3 rounds of drinks and running up quite the Credit Card Bill,, Monday morning he called the guy running the Pool to see where to pickup his big winnings only to find out that he was reading the chart wrong and actually had not won a dime,, LOL Micah will truly be missed, his laughter and shenanigans will never be forgotten,, God Speed my Friend Art Bailey and Family

“ Cameron and Blake, my heart is breaking for you. I know the pain you are feeling is unbearable and very hard to accept. Your father was one of a kind and can never be replaced, but just like Grandpa Joe, he is at peace and whole again. I love you both dearly and you are in my prayers and thoughts. May God's love caress your heart and ease your pain. Love always, Aunt Dottie and Uncle Matt

“ Micah was truly one of the nicest and most sincere guys I’ve ever known. Our boys have been close friends since elementary school and when it was time for Cameron to go home, Micah would come strolling up the driveway- NEVER wearing a shirt. He would just walk over - never a shirt! I’d say “hey it’s Micah no shirt!!” and always got the biggest hug. RIP Micah, until we meet again. I expect you won’t have a shirt on in heaven either❤️❤️ Love you Cameron and Blake- so much. Sorry for your loss.

“ A funny thing happened to me today while making arrangements for my husband...I don't like pink...don't wear pink...Micah bought me a pink fishing shirt for Christmas, it's a really nice shirt I must say but I posted on Facebook that I hate pink and ran my mouth about that dang shirt and Micah saw my post. I don't know where the shirt has gone but while making arrangements today for Micah I took my friend Lisa and she found a pink mermaid toy by the front door...omg I swear it wasn't there when we walked in!!!

“ Years ago, Micah called and told me he left a housewarming gift on my porch which, for days, I never found. He called me about a week later to check, and when I told him I hadn't found anything, he said "You live on Forest, right?" Haha- Correct address, Wrong street. He went back to the house where he left the gift, knocked on the door, asked it back from the guy who lived there, and brought it to my house. That event, along with others, will always crack me up. I'll miss him a lot...
