“ Dear Karin and family,
Please accept our heartfelt condolences and prayers. We did not really know Michael. What we remember is being welcomed to your home and sharing your happiness with your extended family. We remember the warmth in his voice and how proud you both were of your Orlando home and the family you shared it with. Over the years, you have shared your joys on social media. Your family has grown and through it all you and Michael have enjoyed a loving relationship. We know that he is going to be missed. We pray that the memories that you have made together will give you comfort. And we know that Michael will always be alive in your hearts. Thoughts and prayers always,
Irene and Joe Blasko
