“ Michael was not only my brother but one of my best friends....he often made some of the most strange outrageous weird noises that would have you laughing....his random made up stories would always have you one,confused or two laughing until tears were rolling down your faces.No matter how mad you were he could always get some kind of laugh out of you...he always had a very loving heart and loved to help others i will always miss the times he randomly start talking about things that are bothering him or just wanted advice from me that always made me feel special because he trusted my advice and input ...I love you Michael Love Always,Your baby sister Lacie
