“ Dear Malewich Family,
I noticed Michael Sr.'s death in the obituary today. While I didn't personally know him, the pain of your loss touched me--especially for Barbara, Lisa and Michael, Jr. As I read about Michael's life, I couldn't help but notice what a loving man and wonderful provided he was. Barbara, I can't fathom the love that thrived in your household! Michael, Jr. and Lisa, having a father like that is a privilege that a relative few have these days. I am truly sorry for your loss.

May his loving qualities and all your special memories help all of you cope. And as you return to life's routine, may you continue to find comfort in the love and support of God, family and friends.

In deepest sympathy,

Monica Matthews

Fellow Jersey City Resident

P.S.--I hope you don't mind, but I wanted to leave you a link to a brochure that has helped me in my times of loss. I pray it will help all who choose to read it cope.

“ I'd like to offer my sincere condolences to my sister-in-law Barbara, my nephew Michael Jr., and my niece Lisa. I'm sure my sisters and brother join me in expressing deep sadness at the passing of our brother Michael. Michael had nine brothers and sisters – Patricia, Robert, Dorothy, Doreen, Sharon, and the late Arthur, Anthony, Thomas, and Marie. Michael left home to get married when I was a young teen and then moved to Florida so we haven't seen each other very much over the past 35 years or so. I remember Michael as being sweet, kind, and funny. He entertained us younger kids with his terrific Elvis impersonations. He will be missed by all. Rest well dear brother Michael.

“ A beautiful giant stuffed tiger, my dad won it for me years ago when our family took a trip to Busch Gardens. "Impossible" they said to win it but my dad won it on the first try. To this day I still have that beautiful tiger. I can't sum up in a paragraph or two how I feel about my dad, now that would be "impossible." Though it was not nearly enough time I was lucky enough to spend 32 wonderful years with the most extraordinary dad who always put others ahead of himself, who was loving, caring, silly and smart, and who most of all loved me unconditionally. I am lucky, proud and blessed to be the daughter of Michael John Malewich. I love you dad and will see you again someday.

“ From the day I was born my dad did everything he could to make sure I was loved and had everything I needed and wanted. He took every opportunity to teach me how to do the right thing and how to do something right. He never asked for anything in return. I will always love him as the only father I could ever want. I am proud to share a name with Michael John Malewich.

“ I met my husband way back in 1967 I was 14 he was 17. It was love at first sight. I knew he was the one I wanted to be with forever. We married in May of 1972, Mike was the most handsome caring man I have ever met. We lived our vows everyday.

I take you Michael for my lawful husband to have and to hold from this day forward for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish til death do us part.

We will be together again my love, next time it will be forever.

An Irish Blessing:

May the road rise to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of his hand

Today has been the most unbearable day of my life, you have always been a very private person, never wanting or needing anything, always telling me get something for the kids or yourself.

It has always been just the four of us through everything.

You gave me the two most wonderful, caring children in the world, they get that from you.

Michael and Lisa are the only reason that I am going to get thru this.
