Michael Marley

May 16, 1944 – May 11, 2019

Son, Brother, Uncle, Father, Grandfather,
Friend and Husband

He was strong, determined, a task master, particular, tough, and sometimes hard, and yet a lot of times as soft as the down on a birds breast. He touched a lot of lives in many ways young or old, that were obvious to all and to some, in ways we will keep as our own personal special memories. He had many qualities, values and expectations that he passed to children and grandchildren.

His friends knew that his door was always open..... Except at nap time
If the garage door was closed, don't you ring that doorbell!

His family knew he loved them, because he told them so every time he saw them. There were a few things Michael loved; his big red truck, decorating for the holidays for everyone to enjoy, every Christmas he turned his big red truck into Santas Sleigh and had Santa and Mrs Claus in the back giving out goodies, a good party, his pets, and a good tune he could dance to.

His greatest love though was his wife Debbie, of 29 years. She came first!
He admired her, supported her, respected her and loved her.

We love YOU Michael Marley, we miss you in our lives, your hugs, your wit, and your honest handshake.

Spaghetti and Meatballs

Thanksgiving Mashed Potatoes will never be the same.

Till we see you again on the dance floor, Goodbye.....
