

Miguel Ramón Guzmán

February 15, 1993 - February 26, 2016

Miguel Ramón Guzmán, 23 died after a long struggle with addiction, on Friday, February 26, 2016 in Orlando, FL. He was born February 15, 1993 in Orlando FL, to Guillermo “Memo” and Michele Guzmán. His sensitive, beautiful, passionate and loving soul left us too soon. He was a graduate of Lake Nona High School, in 2011 where he demonstrated his musical talent as a percussionist for Jazz Band and Marching Band. He is survived by his parents Michele & Memo; his son Saul Lyndel Guzmán; his brother Andres Guzmán; his sister Cassity (Conradsen) Hogins; brother-in-law Buel Hogins; Nephew and nieces Conrad, Jillian and Claire Hogins; his grandmother Elizabeth Pemberton; aunts and uncles Thais and Rodrigo Li; Angela and Grant Allen; Olivia and Mario Vengoechea; Gonzalo and Maria Guzmán, Mayela & Masoli Masoli; Lyssa and Mace Byington; Jeri and Troy Danvers; Lisa McKinney; Terri Jacobs; and numerous cousins. He is predeceased by his grandparents Susana and Jose R. Guzmán; and grandfather Jerry Naylor; and cousin Joseph Masoli. His accomplishments are not many, because his life was too short, but the amount of lives he touched and left behind are many. His passion for life was music, however, his proudest moment was the birth of his son Saul Lyndel Guzmán who he shared with Marybeth Hernandez.

May his soul be at peace, as he is finally freed from sickness and pain. Our hearts break, not to have been able to see him well again and live his life to the potential and purpose that God intended.

Services will be held at A Community Funeral Home 910 W Michigan Street Orlando, FL 32805, Saturday, March 5 (2:00 p.m.). Flowers may be sent to the funeral home. Memorial donations may be made in Miguel's name to Back to Nature Animal Refuge; btnwildlife.org.

“ All I think about is you. Your voice and the smart sounding things you would share with me. All the stories and lessons I have learned. You were the best teacher. You opened my life to so many opportunities and I refuse to believe you are gone. You were my companion, my counselor and most important my true and honest friend. Toxic was the word to describe us but you gave me sanity. Not a single day goes by where you aren't in my constant thoughts. I promised you always that I will forever love you and you will always be the love of my entire life. I wish I could see your sweet face. If I could just look at your eyes one more time. If only I could touch you again. I ache for you. You have given me the greatest gift life has to offer and that is our beautiful son. You will forever, for eternity have my heart and soul. Miguel I love you and no words can express that. Thank you for accepting me and loving every ounce of my being. Through the good and the bad you fulfilled my emptiness and showed me the light. I'm so sorry. Please guide me and our son through our journey here on earth and may you be at peace with your grandpa and the rest of our loved ones. Miguel if I could just have you back I'd give anything. I love you so much and I just can't bare another day without you in it. I WILL LOVE YOU FOREVER NOW AND IN OUR NEXT LIFETIME. Until we meet again, I love you and I am so grateful I've had the chance to experience the meaning of true love, life and death.

“ My dear sweet Son,
How I miss you and love you beyond words. I keep thinking that I am going to wake up from this and you are going to be here with me. I was blessed to be your Mother, I will cherish the time (ever so brief) that we had together, and I look forward to the day that I will feel your hugs, see your bright blue eyes again. For now watch over us and know that we will take care of the most precious gift that you could have left us, Saul.
Be free my son!
I love you forever

“ Michele, I don't know if you remember me but I used to attend the Nar-anon group in Maitland and then in Winter Park before I moved to Alabama about 3 years ago. Like everyone else, I am so sorry for your loss of your beautiful son. The people I know (through my son) who have struggled with addiction are all great people. Not average people, but great people with so much potential in so many areas. They can do anything they try to do, and do it well. And like you described Miguel in his obituary, they are sensitive, beautiful, passionate people. They are good souls.
I am praying for comfort for you, in your pain which I know that I can not imagine the depth of. Sincerely, Kim “ Dearest Michelle, Memo, and family, words alone will never fulfill the void that has been left in your life in the loss of Miguel. I cannot say that time heals all wounds, it doesn't!

But it is our prayer that you all find a personal way to appreciate the blessed time that you had with him. We all deal with the heartbreaks that life presents to all of us in different ways and time. There will always be a piece of your heart that you will never get back, but there is also that special piece that he still resides in. Please hold each other tighter knowing that you both share that same special place where Miguel now lives forever.

“ *I will never forget the 1st time I met Miguel. He was so proper. He let me know he was in love with my daughter. Every time will see each other no matter how bad his day was, he will give me a kiss and a thight hug. I know in my heart he wanted for everyone to be proud of his accomplishment big or small.
I thank him for giving us such a priceless gift, a piece of him to always remember him by. His son Saúl Lindell Guzman. I know you will be watching over all of us now. Rest in Peace sweetheart!*

“ On one of our many camping adventures, Miguel and I were fishing in a mountain creek, and he wanted to play with the stringer holding the days catch. I told him he could, but to make sure the stringer stayed underwater. That is exactly what he did, and down the river the stringer went, along with all of the fish we'd caught that morning. Whaddya gonna do! Love you Miguel.
