“ May God bless you always Micky.

You were not only my father-in-law; you were my friend. I cherish the times when you Lucas and I went to the Military Museum or when we would go shooting bee-bee guns together. I will truly miss those times we spent together.

You had a special place in your heart for my daughter Isabella and loved when she would sing to you or pray with you. I am so grateful she was able to say one last prayer with you and our family together. I believe her prayers were answered, and you are now in peace in Heaven.

I want to thank you most for my beautiful wife Lucie you were always gracious and kind to both of us and would do anything to help us, encourage us, and be there for us.

God Bless you

Your Son-in-Law and Friend

Jeff

Mickey siempre te voy a llevar en mi corazón, tu y Luz Delia me abrieron las puertas de tu casa cuando me mude a Orlando casi 30 años atrás, me ayudaron mucho, me aconsejaban y gracias a toda tu familia me pude quedar en este país y trabajar y tenerlo todo, siempre me acuerdo de todas tus historias, cuando veíamos a la “comai” y hablamos de política y todo lo demás temas, estoy muy agradecida y nunca te olvidare, te quiero mucho tu hija postiza Lydia Mejias.

Nuestro querido Mickey, jamás olvidaremos tu sonrisa, siempre sonriendo. Recordamos con el estoicismo que confrontaste el cancer de la boca y otras muchas cosas que empezaron a surgir después de la cirugía. Volveremos a verte sonriendo en el cielo al lado de Jesús! Hasta luego querido hermano! Falo y Dalila Isern
