“ Lo siento mucho miguel hernandez mi gran cliente, recuerdo siempre cuando te venias a cortar tu cabello y tu barba, que siempre me demostraste ese cariño y confianza de un amigo sin conocerme de muchos años, me mostraste que no necesitas conocer tanto tiempo a un persona para darle tanto cariño el cual tu me demostrante, siento tu partida y extrañaré volverte a ver mi amigo, Dios halla tenido misericordia de tu alma y que hoy goses en la presencia del señor Jesucristo, porque siempre me hablabas de Jesucristo en todas tus platicas de decías primero Dios y si Dios quiere, siempre ponías a Dios en todo, y eso me demostraba tu lado humano de un buen hijo y un buen esposo porque hablabas tan lindo de tu esposa y de tus hijas, un gran ser humano, se despide de ti tu barber edgard Rivera 😭 ”

“ Tio its been years we haven't seen each other or spoken. The day I found out you were in the hospital fighting for your life.....I said to myself "My uncle got this, he will pull through, he's gonna make it." When I got news you you passed away...I was in shock and heartbroken, because I wanted to talk to you and let you know I was rooting for you and praying for you. Now that you are gone.... I know you are not suffering anymore and you are at peace....more alive then ever, in Heaven. No goodbyes Tio....I'll see you later. I LOVE YOU....YOUR Nephew Gordo.

“ I can't believe I'm writing this. You were with me through most of my life's milestones. Graduation, sweet 16, first major move. An uncle who was more like a big brother/father figure. You called me your "nephew" because we thought a lot alike but always reminded me to be a lady first. I thought we'd have more time to figure things out, I am grateful we got to spend a few hours together before you transitioned on. There were so many things to say but we didn't have to say them at all, in the end, all that mattered is the love we shared. The moments we laughed, the tears we cried, and strength we have. I love you tio, forever and always
