“ Everytime I would visit you, I'd lay next to you in bed, and tell you I loved you and how strong you were. I'm going to miss that. What I'm grateful for is the many years of memories we shared. Thank you for being at my wedding. Thank you for always loving my kids. They adored their Abuelito. Aiden says he will see his Abuelito in heaven and he is right. The last time I visited with Abuelito at home he was in pain but he got up just to have a cup of coffee with me. Thank you for living and raising good sons. They showed me how to truly love a parent. Rest in peace knowing we will take good care of Abuelita. Love you cuchuvito

Lamentó mucho la pérdida de su ser querido y pésame de todo corazón a la familia. Que los bonitos recuerdos que compartieron con su ser querido y la promesa de nuestro Padre celestial que pronto podremos ver de nuevo a nuestros amados que hemos perdido en la muerte los llené de paz y tranquilidad en este momento difícil en sus vidas.(Juan 5:28,29)

En nombre de mi madre mis hijos y hermanos quiero agradecerles a todos los que no solo nos acompañaron en el dolor tan inmenso que estamos pasando, sino en todos los felices momentos que compartieron con el cuando estuvo es algo que nunca olvidaremos por que todos aquellos que le dieron ese momento de alegría en lo que estuvo fueron muestras de aprecio y eso es algo que nunca se olvida, Dios los vendiga por que al tiempo que compartian esos instantes de alegría hacian que esta enfermedad no fuera tan dolorosa y a la vez hicieron que nosotros no sufriamos al pensar que un día no iba a estar , pero lo mas que me hace sentir tranquila es que el ya no sufre con tantos dolores y que el esta en una vida mejor con dios y la virgen santisima , gracias a todos por esa paciencia que tubieron con nosotros gracias por comprendernos y acompañarnos.. con todo mi carino para todos Janet
