

Mikhail Cuba

December 17, 2008 - November 24, 2025

In Loving Memory of Mikhail Xavier Cuba, lovingly known as Mike, but to his mother, he was her BoOgie.

Mikhail was born on Wednesday, December 17, 2008. He was a young man of remarkable kindness, intelligence, and generosity. He brought light and laughter to everyone who knew him.

Mikhail shared an unbreakable bond with his mother, serving not only as her beloved son but also her best friend through thick and thin. Their relationship was filled with laughter, deep conversations, and unwavering support.

He was quiet and serious, yet his playful and silly side shone through for those he loved. He was always willing to go the extra mile for his family and friends. No matter the distance, you could always count on him being there for you.

He loved riding bikes, finding peace and freedom in the open road. His honor, nobility, and dignity were beyond measure, and he touched countless lives with his warmth and compassion.

If you were his friend, you were his family. His friends will continue to keep his memory alive by sharing stories and thinking of him every time they see a bike on the road.

There are not enough words to express how deeply he is missed and how special he remains in our hearts. The harder you love someone, the greater the weight of the loss, but his spirit lives on.

Rest in power, Mikhail. Forever loved. Forever missed. Forever ours.
