“ Milagritos y yo éramos muy buenas amigas cuando estábamos en el colegio. Recuerdo su dulzura y su sentido del humor. Nos reencontramos muchísimos años después y conversamos y compartimos mucho, a la distancia. Sus mensajes siempre positivos y tratando de ver el lado amable a la vida me enseñaron que uno siempre puede vencer las mayores adversidades.

Al final, ella sí venció porque no sólo formó una preciosa familia, sino que nos enseñó la manera de sobrellevar una enfermedad tan difícil, con una sonrisa en el rostro.

Gracias, querida Milagritos por enseñarnos tanto. Gracias, por compartirnos tus alegrías y dolores, gracias por hacernos fuertes, con tu fortaleza, gracias por acompañarnos en nuestras noches de insomnio. Se te va a extrañar, y mucho.

Un beso enorme hasta el cielo. Te quedas en nuestros corazones!!!

“ All of us at Celebration K-8 School share our sympathy with the Rohrer family at this sad time. Those who had the children in classes knew Mrs. Rohrer to be a Mom who LOVED each child and was eager to see them succeed, Her passion for education was strong! It is one of the gifts she leaves behind; each child's future success will be her legacy.

“Millie and I are family through our husbands. We met about 30 years ago. We had a LONG span of just doing our own family things, then a few years ago Millie called me. We talked a lot after that. Off and on, she would call or I would call and we would talk about our families. Then she would ask what I was doing. It was usually not much, just taking care of my chickens. (I have a lot of them) Millie said she liked calling and hearing about my chickens because it made her happy.

Millie, you left too soon. You are so loved. We will all miss you. <3 <3

“One of my favorite memories of Millie was late 2013 when a few of us ladies got together to go back in time to the 80s. Millie had the cutest outfit, teased hair and all, and we danced to freestyle music and laughed all night. I will always remember that night with Millie.

“I never knew Millie before she got sick so I just can't stop staring at this beautiful, beautiful picture of Millie and her family. What has drawn me to Millie is the light that she has shown during every part of her cancer journey; the jokes she made at her chemo appointment, going for lunch or smoothies even when you could tell Millie wasn't feeling well, the great talks we always had, and the praises she always gave to Danny and the kids! I have also been drawn to see the love and devotion to Millie of both Danny and each of her children though out the entire journey especially in the last 3 weeks. Does saying having the opportunity to share in the beauty and love of an extraordinary family count as my favorite memory?
