

Mr. "Moe" Kerry W Anderson

February 16, 1952 - December 21, 2013

The Greatest Man...

Kerry W. Anderson "Moe", 61, of Orlando FL, passed away Saturday, December 21, 2013 at home surrounded by loved ones after losing his battle with Cancer.

Born in Lafayette IN on February 16, 1952 to Mary Louise and Wayne Carmi Anderson, he was raised in Monticello IN. He came from a large, close, loving family and was the second of five children. He loved to tell stories of growing up, the fun they had on the farm, and always looked forward to the annual family reunion in August.

In August of 1977, he married Debra L. Newberry. They were married at the Altamonte Chapel, in Altamonte FL. Together they have three children and two grandchildren. He was a loving husband , father, and grandfather. His greatest gift was his ability to love them equally while being proud of their individuality.

He was a genuine man with integrity and morals. Never did he judge another and was a man of his word. He loved unconditionally and showed it through his actions. He impacted the lives of those who knew him as he inspired and motivated those around him. He was referred to as “Never Say No Moe”.

A man with a heart of gold gone too soon.

Hobbies included family time, playing golf, networking, socializing and meeting new people. He loved to tell jokes and had his own famous lines you couldn't help but laugh at again and again. He had a contagious smile that will surely be missed.

He was preceded in death by his father, Wayne Carmi Anderson. Left to honor and remember his love are his wife, Debbie; mother, Mary Louise; three children, Rachael (Joe), Sean and Lindsey; two grandchildren, Madison and Taj; twin sister, Kathryn (Roger); four brothers, David (Janie), John (Lois), Tom, as well as loving in-laws, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and a host of longtime friends.

Kerry “Moe” will be missed by so many until one day we meet again. Heaven gained an amazing angel on this day. The family will forever cherish the time spent with him in his final weeks, leaving no words left unsaid and a thousand I Love Yous!

“ We are sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but we hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death (John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth (John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ You have my deepest sympathy and empathy in you loss. During such a time I was greatly encouraged by a promise I found in the Bible at Revelation 21:3, 4 where a time will come when we will not experience the suffering that come from this type of tragedy. With this thought in mind I invite you to visit www.jw.org, there you will find more information on Gods promise of the resurrection.

I feel as if I've lost a brother. I've known Moe for 35 years as he was my best friends hubby. We shared a lifetime together. Even though I'm 600 miles away, my heart ached knowing he fought his battle with cancer. He is no longer suffering and Debbie and I know that he and Ron are playing a round of golf together. My favorite memory of Moe was we were at their home many years ago for a party and he was standing on top of a table dancing like Elvis. Moe was the life of a party. When he would walk in a room, the room would light up. Full of laughter....He was the most positive person I believe I've ever met. He would do anything for Deb and I mean anything for her. I will miss him dearly. Kathy Herington

“ I guess it was about ten years ago when a friend of mine asked if my then band could play at a charity event for someone they knew. I said absolutely. I met Moe and that night had an instant friend. I worked at a local tavern where he would pass through now and then to have a glass of wine. He was like a breath of fresh air with his jokes and stories of his family. One of the most honest, respectful people I have ever had the chance to meet. My love goes out to his family as I know how much he loved them and how much they loved him.

“ When Moe passed from this life into eternity, our neighborhood lost a wonderful friend and neighbor. Debbie and family, we pray that your grief may be blanketed with the comfort of God’s love and the knowledge of His perfect plans for each one of us. We all believe Moe left us too soon, but in the greater realm of God’s love; He is exactly where he should be in God’s perfect timing. The physical presence of Moe’s grin and the way his eyes light up every time he met with anyone young or old will be greatly missed. But thanks be to God, we have many memories to hold on to until our days are up. Our favorite memory of Moe was his shouting out “HEY BABY!” as we passed daily. Those words now clearly shout out throughout eternity. ?
We won’t say “Good bye Moe;” instead we choose to say: “Hey Baby! see you again soon.”

“ Mobandi!!!! I am so glad I got to meet you almost 30 years ago when we worked together at the HIS stores for Men. You were the life of the party and you never met a stranger. There are no words that can describe how grateful I am that you and I were reunited after so many years here at my current job with Sheraton. You were here such a short time but everyone loved you. You will be sorely missed my friend. Love your little brother, David A

“ I'm so sorry for your loss! In these times of deep sorrow God's word provides so much comfort! Revelation 21:4 promises a time when pain and sorrow will be of the past! I hope that it gives you as much comfort as it has me in these difficult times.

“ Hard to believe that I remember your 40th birthday, when I can't even remember my OWN!
I don't feel sorry for you Moe, as you are stress and struggle free now, my old friend.
I feel sorry for US. For WE have to live in a world, with one less good person in it.
The world loses "good" people everyday.
My only fear is that Moe will not be replaced. :-(
R.I.P. now, buddy.

“ My friend Moe has been battling, NEVER giving up, with cancer. Today he is OK.
He has left all the bad in this world and taken, with him, all the good that he has accumulated. The "good" that he has done. The Love that he has earned and the family that knows what a "good" person he was and his soul still is.
Yes you cannot take earthly riches with you when you leave. However you DO get to take true wealth with you.
My friend Moe Anderson had a short but full life. He wasn't money wealthy, but he had a life that billionaires envy.
The short description of my friend may surprise some, who may not have truly known this about him. There are only two words needed to sum up Moe Anderson and I don't mean just "funny and entertaining".
Integrity and loyalty.
Good bye my dear old friend. I will see you again, soon enough.

“ My grandmother left me this poem and I wanted to share it with you.

"I Am With You Still"
I give you this one thought to keep
I am with you still-do not weep.
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glints on the snow
I am the sunlight on ripened grain
I am the gentle autumns rain
When you awaken in the mornings rush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight
I am the soft stars that shine at night
Do not think of me as gone..
I am with you still - in each new dawn.

Always in your hearts, will miss u so..
Love Terri and Fred. Hugs

“ Moe is and always will be a wonderful life long friend. Words cannot express how wonderful a friend, teacher, mentor, boss or human being he is and always will be. “ Hey, you're lookin, good! Moe, you were a great mentor, a salesman's salesman. On the surface, you were the king of the one-liners, but beyond that, you were a master at the psychology of sales. Wherever you were, people wanted to either be you, or be around you. Truly, a hard man to beat! My condolences to your family. Ken -former all cellular employee
