

Murrel Gray Williams

January 2, 1928 - November 18, 2014

Murrel Gray Williams, age 86 of Orlando, Florida passed away November 18, 2014.

The magnitude of life is overwhelming. Angels are here to help us take it peace by peace. ~Levende Waters

This was Gammy to all who knew her . . . an angel among us all who helped piece her family and friends together in unimaginable ways. She was the matriarch of our family and to lose her is heartbreaking. But, in that heartbreak is love and an honor to have known her. She was an amazing wife and mother to three children, and from her love, her family grew; nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, all of whom would not be the same without having known her. Holiday traditions, amazing food, Bridge, sewing, creativity, love and the overwhelming sense of home are just some of the things that make her so very special to us all. She had a way of making everyone around her feel loved and welcome. Her presence and her touch will be missed so very much, but her memory will never fade. We love you so much, Gammy, and there is not a day that will go by that you will not be thought about. The Angels have found you and have taken you home.

“ Gammy was a wonderful, loving lady whose smile lit up the room! I have great memories of swimming and playing at her house with my cousins, the Williams girls.

One summer, I had a broken arm and couldn't swim with everyone. She made me feel very special letting me help prepare all the ice cream and toppings. She always made everyone feel special. ❤️ She has left a wonderful legacy in her beautiful family. God bless and love to each of you.

“ Mom, it's not easy to say goodbye! There are not enough words in the universe to describe you but if I had to pick some there would only be three. MOM IS LOVE. That's how I feel when I think of you, when I would see you or when I needed you. You always had time to listen, to lecture, to inspire and to give a hug when there was joy and to give a hug when there was sadness. My greatest memories and overwhelming pride is how you would embrace my four beautiful girls, your granddaughters, with Grace and Love. It didn't stop there, when you were blessed with grandchildren you were there with open arms and a smile. Oh my, your smile. I know Wanda and Gregory feel the same. Your capacity to love was never ending. Your legacy will never end. I never thought there would come a time it would end, but I knew it must. There is peace where you are. I'll never take off my cell phone contact "Dad & Mom" It will always be Dad and Mom. Oh, Dad, don't think I forgot about you. Without you and mom this story could never be told. Thank You. It's not easy to say goodbye. I love you and will miss you. Clifford John Williams, III

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Gammy. Swimming in the pool during the summer, having raw toes in the evening because we never wanted to get out. Spending the night was the best because when the sheets were calling Grandad, Gammy was the night owl and would stay up late with us. She sure did love her basketball. North Carolina and Orlando Magic. I will miss you dearly and I love you Gam!

“ I would like to share a memory of a wonderful woman .When we first met dylan and taylor were four and two . I remember how she accepted us into her family, always so curious of my children , always making sure I was good,How are your children . Are you getting enough to eat. One year she noticed Tracie and ma admiring her orchids and she told me, pick one, Didn't really know me, but accepted me all the same. Kind ,sharing ,and curious ,as well as an incredible smile, that is my memory. Thank you for that that.

“ Gammy, I love you. I took for granted that I couldn't have you forever. It just never seemed possible that I wouldn't. I pray that my kids have the same relationship with their grandmother(s) that I had with you. My childhood memories basically consist of your house, swimming with my cousins, crushing cans, begging to sleep in the apartment . . . just too many to list here. You were just IT for me. And it's funny because while I have so many of these memories, of growing up with you, my most recent memories of you make me really smile. Sitting on my mom's couch, trying to warm up your hands; pulling weeds in the backyard with Casen; sipping wine on the porch. I will miss you so much, Gam. We all will. See you in Heaven. xoxo

I am truly sorry for your family's loss. I got the pleasure of meeting her a few times back on our teenage years, and she was so sweet, kind hearted, and just a good person. I will pray for peace and strength for your family as you all go through this tuff time. With all my heart, xoxo - Margie

“ To share just one memory here of Gammy is impossible... I'm flooded with great childhood memories spent in Orlando. Christmas time is at the top! Gammy watching us all open gifts from her designated couch. I think it's perfect that Gammy collected her angels because she is definitely one of mine now, all of ours!

You will always make a smile come to my face when I think about you Gam :)

“ Home made Easter dresses, mandatory summer vacations with her, checking movies(I saw Inner Space 10 times in a row!) holding on to her finger in crowded places... I tell my own kids to "hold my finger" just like Gammy told me. These are just a few of the small things that left big memories in my heart.

“ Oh Gammy. The matriarch of our family. We were so fortunate and blessed to have such a large number of our family living close by to the "Williams Resort". We have raised our children and shared so many memories in your backyard that spans through multiple generations.

Always the gracious host, your charm, wit, and infectious smile will always be a part of the many lives you have touched.

Family and friends left behind now feel a large void with your passing, but your legacy and the memories will live on in our hearts forever. Thank you for the years and years of great times. We all love you and will miss you dearly.

Classic Southern Woman full of hospitality and love. Murrel's daughter, Wanda, said it best when she wrote, "Always the gracious hostess. Your charm, wit and infectious smile will always be a part of the many lives you have touched."

Even tho we didn't see much of each other in the past years, the world will seem empty to me and many others, to know you are not here on this earth with us any longer.

Let us all strive to be as loving as you always were. See you in Heaven :)

My sympathies are with Uncle Buck, Wanda, Speedy, Greg and the entire family.

I only had the pleasure of meeting Aunt Murrel on two occasions, but I felt like I already knew her and Uncle Buck through John's reminiscing about wonderful family times at their home. She made me feel like a part of the family from the moment I met her and would not let me leave her home the first time without a few of the beautiful potholders she made. I will always treasure them. She was a tiny lady who make a HUGE impact on my husband... and me. Rest in peace, Aunt Murrel.
