

Nancy E. Gruber

August 15, 1935 - March 19, 2020

Nancy was born in Harristown, Illinois August 15, 1935. She was raised on the family farm with her three brothers spending her free time in the 4H club showing cattle, pigs, sheep, and learning how to sew. She prided herself on winning the shows over her brothers. After having her two children, Linda and Ann with her first husband, Nancy settled on a career with United Airlines based in the Chicago suburbs, where she retired from at age 62. She remarried during this time for many years. Nancy relocated to Orlando after her divorce, where she enjoyed time with the family, working various jobs at the hospital and then volunteering in the NICU. She was a member of the choir at the Cathedral Church of St. Luke's where she sang until her most recent illness as well as volunteering in the front office. Nancy loved people, pets and traveling and would do anything in the world for someone in need.

Nancy is survived by one brother, her two daughters, one son in law, 5 grandsons and their wives, 3 great grandsons and one great granddaughter.

Services will be after the healthcare crisis at the Cathedral Church of St Luke's where she will be buried in the memorial garden.

Tribute Wall

“ Nancy Thank you for being such a wonderful neighbor. I already miss you and hope you are reunited with your dogs. ”

Michele Twigg - March 27, 2020 at 06:08 PM