“ The best times were going to the casino boat , shopping and just talking with my grammy. When I got older I moved to Orlando to be close to my grandparents. We saw one another everyday. I'm glad I have all the memories to hold on to. She was a very important person to my son corey as well . She was definitely one of a kind . I know shes with my pop pop in heaven there both watching over us all.. we love you .. Tiffany and corey
