

Nathaniel Narue Charles Jr.

August 10, 2002 - July 6, 2023

With the heaviest of hearts our family announces the passing of Nathaniel Narue Charles Jr. also known as Choopi, which we cherished and loved so much. His unfortunate death has struck our family once again due to the passing of his older brother David Conyers Jr. in 2021. In this moment of sadness pain and sorrow we grieve that he was unfortunate to be tragically shot on July 6th and later died from his injuries.

Our family and friends are mourning the loss of this beautiful young soul which had such a powerful impact on everyone he knew and met. He was the light of our family and such a charismatic young man who leaves behind his Mother Damaris Burgos; Father, Nathaniel Charles Sr.; Sisters, Kyla Gomez and Sytira Charles; Brothers, Rason Lockhart and Nazir Charles; Grandmother, Gladys Centeno; Great Grandmother, Cruita Candelauro; Uncle, Louis Burgos; Cousin, Thalia Burgos.

He will be greatly missed to so many of our lives.

We love, cherish and are blessed knowing he is with the Lord Jesus Christ.

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing
times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ I just learned today of Nate's passing, and my heart broke, it broke for the long life he was robbed of and for his family and the pain they must live with. I will always remember Nate's infectious smile and laugh, and our many chats during his time at NFA. Much love always, Mrs. Daley

“ Son no words can explain how I feel But it's like Your brothers passing took me through soo much that it's like it prepared me for anything. Everyday gets harder and I get stronger. It's like God has taken you both from me but given me strength for some crazy reason that is unexplainable. Im here always going to fight for you. You are truly missed and Loved☺️🙏 Until we meet again I love you David and Choopi🙏
