

Natividad Lizana "OMA"

May 26, 1946 - November 2, 2016

Oma was born in Piura, Perú on May 26, 1946.

She grew up in Piura in a hacienda with her grandmother. At the age of 20, she moved to Lima in search of opportunities and new horizons. Through her tenacity, consistency and desire for a better life, she found a job. When she was 20, she met her husband, Rodrigo Hanse who died shortly before the birth of their only daughter, Jenny. Throughout the years, Oma and Jenny lived together in Miraflores- Lima, Peru until 1999 when they moved to Miami searching for a new and better life.

In 2001, a year after Jenny married her husband Andre, and six months after her grandson Brandon was born, Oma moved into their apartment in Miami to be closer to her family and to take care of her beloved NIETO (Brandon).

In 2003, they all moved to Orlando and Oma enjoyed her new neighborhood and room where she was enjoying her NOVELA's, Tennis and Barcelona Soccer Games.

In 2006, her granddaughter Isabella was born. With her grandson and her granddaughter in the same house, Oma was living a life she always dreamed of. When Lucas joined the family in 2011, her life was complete. In our neighborhood, Oma was simply known as "The Lady who walks her little white dog 24/7".

On November 2, 2016, Oma left us way too early with our hearts broken. Although we will miss her deeply, we will always remember her sense of humor, her positive attitude, her happiness, her amazing cooking, her generosity, her kindness, her dedication and her unconditional love to our family. We know she is our angel watching over us from heaven who will take care of us as she always did here on earth.

Oma, we will miss you deeply but we will always love you and you will live in our hearts forever.

Cheers Oma, until we meet again.

“Nadie conoce el dolor de la perdida de una madre o un padre a menos que lo haya vivido. Sin duda no hay nada que nos pueda preparar para dicha perdida, pero tenemos la maravillosa promesa de la resurrecion. Dios en su infinito amor nos da los siguientes versos biblicos que nos llena de esperanza, cito, "Y él limpiará toda lágrima de sus ojos, y la muerte no será más, ni existirá ya más lamento ni clamor ni dolor. Las cosas anteriores han pasado."— Rev. 21:3, 4. "Viene la hora en que todos los que están en las tumbas conmemorativas oirán su voz y saldrán," (Juan 5:28.) La Biblia dice: "Como el último enemigo, la muerte ha de ser reducida a nada" (1 Corintios 15:26). En Isaías 25:8 leemos que Jehová "realmente se tragará a la muerte para siempre": Dios tiene poder infinito. Solo Jehová es todopoderoso. No hay nada en todo el universo que pueda impedir que cumpla sus promesas. Sin duda la promesa de la resurrección le dará razones para sentirse feliz.
