“ Words can't express how much I miss you my daddy, poppa bear. I want to thank you for giving me life. I have been blessed to share 42 years with you always by my side. Thank you for all the love and support you have always given me as a father. You are the definition of what an amazing father is and you will always be the greatest father in the world to me. Thank you for our beautiful father- daughter bond. Through me your love always lives. I love you my daddy. We will see each other again

“ So many great memories with my Gramps. This pic is him and I going to New York together for my mom crystal's 60th birthday. One of my favorite memories i remember is when me and my sister Jen were little we would see Grandpa pull up get excited wait for him to walk in then run to him hug him then go straight to his pants cuz he always had candy in his pockets for us. Grandpa your going to be missed so very much! I love you my Gramps ❤️ ❤️ 🙏🏻🙏🏻
