

Noah C. Polanco

June 22, 2004 - September 16, 2023

In Loving Memory of Noah Caleb Polanco,

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved Noah Polanco, who left us far too soon at the age of 19. He was taken from us unexpectedly on September 16, 2023. Born in New York and raised in both New York City and Florida, Noah was the son of Laura Linares and Dorian Polanco.

Noah could be shy and reserved, but his quiet demeanor concealed a sharp intellect and a quick wit. His humor and clever remarks never failed to bring us to laughter. Although he didn't like to boast about this, his intelligence was also evident by him graduating high school 1 year early.

From a young age, Noah found solace and happiness in immersing himself in virtual worlds and exploring the latest gaming experiences. He had an innate curiosity and enthusiasm for the ever-evolving world of technology. Whether it was building his own computers or playing video games.

Beyond his love for technology, Noah possessed a creative soul, finding joy in exploring different forms of artistic expression. He had a keen eye for fashion and was a sneakerhead at heart, always staying ahead of the latest trends. His passion for art extended beyond fashion, as he would attend art shows, museums, and fairs to slowly build his art collection.

Despite his allergies he really loved animals and could not resist playing with dogs, bunnies and sometimes cats. But his favorite pet of choice was birds. Noah owned 2 birds who were always on his shoulder. We referred to him as the "Bird Whisperer."

Noah leaves behind a devastated family, including his loving parents, Laura Linares and Dorian Polanco, his adoring sister, Mariah Polanco and his favorite cousin/bonus sister Felisha Figueroa. He was a cherished son, a beloved brother, cousin, nephew and a dear friend. We find solace in the knowledge that this tall dark and handsome man is now at peace, watching over us from above.

Rest in peace, dear Noah. You will always be loved, always remembered and forever missed.

“ I stayed up many nights gaming with noah and chatted he was very funny and seem like a cool dude I wish I could have met him or maybe could have told him how cool he was or how good some of his video game gameplay was. I always wondered what he looked like and he was very handsome and would have made someone very happy . God has another angel, someone very strong smart and intelligent more than many probably knew but to me it was evident from the way he held himself and to the creator who loves us all more than anyone including ourselves his worth was needed in heaven. I hope you live in happiness forever Noah C. Polanco. Also as I knew you more so which was on the games as groggy noah you will be forever remembered. Thank you for every single moment you gave to hang out.

I will miss the sound of your soft voice, the comfort of your long arms around me when you greeted me with a hug and said "Hi Titi", and our debates, even when you were adamant about a topic.
