

Noel A Martinez

June 28, 1988 - November 2, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Noel A. Martinez, who left us on November 2, 2024, after a courageous battle with lymphoma that spanned over two years. Born on June 28, 1988, Tony was a loving son, brother, and friend whose spirit touched the lives of many.

Tony proudly served in the United States Army, completing one tour in Afghanistan during his military career. His dedication and bravery during his service exemplified the values he held dear: honor, duty, and sacrifice. He was deeply respected by his comrades and remained committed to supporting fellow veterans throughout his life.

Tony's passion extended beyond just enjoying food—it was also about creating it. Driven by a deep love for cooking, he pursued formal education to refine his culinary skills and spent his career perfecting them in various restaurant kitchens. His journey led him to a fulfilling role as a Chef at FK Your Diet, where he not only found his professional home but also had the opportunity to pursue another passion: helping children. Together with the restaurant owners, Tony worked to give back to the community, partnering with local foster agencies to provide memorable experiences and joy for children in need.

Tony is survived by his devoted parents, Jacqueline Martinez and Dwayne

Crockett and his beloved brother, Steven S. Thomas He leaves behind numerous family members and friends who will cherish his memory and the impact he had on their lives.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Basecamp.org who provide support for children and families who are facing the day-to-day challenge of living with cancer.

Noel will be remembered for his infectious smile, unwavering spirit, and the love he shared with all. May he rest in peace, knowing he is deeply loved and missed.

“ Good Morning Family and Friends , I would like to thank you for all your support and love during this difficult time. For coming together to celebrate the slide and memories of my son Noel. He was very Special. He made such an impact in each and everyone of our lives. Then he choose to spread that love with others in need. His heart was filled with so much love. I am grateful to have been chosen by God to be his mom. My son this is not goodbye but see You later. My Strong Warrior. We will remember you always.

“ There are so many fun moments to share so I can't focus on one particular...my thoughts after seeing everyone at the service and online one thing was so sure! You had an amazing way of making people feel so important in your life. The way you gave your undivided attention to each group of people who felt an unwavering connection to you was truly a gift cuz! I thought I was lucky to have that with you, but now we realized many of us had that with you! Love you!

“ There isn't a day that I don't thank God for putting you in my path that summer at Camp Conri. We met about 8 years ago and you made that experience unique for me. Me and Maleni traveled to New York with you for the first time, one of my biggest dreams, and we had so much funnnn. I had to return to Spain after camp as I began my dental studies, a dream that I had to fulfill for myself and my family. We talked for a few years but then we grew apart until we got back in touch. We always said that as soon as I finished my degree and could go see you I would do it or as soon as you got better you would come to Spain but it couldn't be and I don't forgive myself. There is not a day that I do not stop thinking about it, Tony. Thanks for beeing such a good friend, good son and a really good person with big big heart.

A few months ago we had a long video call and we laughed so much remembering all the moments at camp, how much fun we had and how much the children loved us and wrote us letters, you don't know how happy it made me to see you smiling among all the storm passing in your head. Much strength to your mother, whom you spoke so beautifully to me, and to your friend Bill, for whom you had so much unconditional love. From Spain and with a heavy heart, rest in peace ¡Cookie!

PS: As I always told you, sorry for my terrible English.

“ Sharing a lil memory, this one goes back many many moons ago. So here I am calling him Tony, his cousin Rey -aka- my husband never EVER told me his first name was "Noel". Here we are hosting Thanksgiving at our place and our friend Nancy, who attended high school with him approached me and said, "hey I didn't know you guys were related to Noel?" I looked at her so confused 😞 like "who the heck is Noel?" She laughed and said "the guy sitting on your couch" lol 😊 You know I gave both Tone and Rey the side eye.

“ I haven't been able to stop thinking about you ! There is not ONE bad memory I have with you Noel ! Not one. We had the time of our lives at Camp Connri. And boy did we get into a lot of trouble having a long distance relationship “puppy love” and running up our mothers phone bills lol. I'll never forget how over protective you were of me that summer. You came to the camp/work late into the summer but when you came that was it. No one else mattered. It was just you and I two young kids having the best summer ever enjoying each other's company. Having you both...you and Shahid made it the best summer of my life.

We continued our friendship throughout the years. Time passed and we grew distant but never the love we had for each other and our families. When I thought it couldn't get any better I met your brother Shahid that summer and he became such an important person in my life and in just one summer I had considered him my best friend and we were inseparable. Time slipped away and we grew apart but never the love I've had for you all.

And then there's your mother Jackie who in a short time felt like a second mother to me. I am so so sorry Ma. I am a mother to an amazing 14 year old boy Jacob “Bam Bam” and a 2 year old princess Haven “Nore” and now being a mother I can't imagine what you are going through and how you are feeling. I'll never forget the way he spoke about you and how much he loved you and knew I had to meet the most important person in his life. From the moment I met you I felt close to you. You welcomed me into your home with open arms and couldn't believe you and the boys came to Stamford to stay with us. But we had an amazing time. Great memories I'll hold onto forever.

Noel, you fought so hard !!! Harder than I had ever seen someone fight. Every post you posted every conversation that we had you reassured me that you weren't going down without a fight! You weren't going to give up and you didn't. Your faith pushed you through and touched not only my life but so so many other people.

I loved you then and I'll love you forever my dear friend ! Until we meet again.

S.I.P Noel

“ I miss you my Handsome son. Words can not express the void I feel. But I have been Honored to be your mom. You made my life so much better. Your laughter always brought such joy into my life. You were a Warrior to the very end. You had such a passion for life and family. Love you so very much. So very proud of who you became. This is not good bye but see you later.
