“ Pastor Norman was truly one of a kind! He will always be remembered for his unwavering faith and unconditional love. His heart beat for God and for people, and his guidance was always available, no matter the hour. He stood firmly committed to his purpose, to God's word, and to his church. I'll always cherish his wise counsel, "Hija, let your Yes be Yes and your No be No." His legacy lives on, inspiring us to embrace our convictions with courage and clarity. Pastor Norman, your impact is deeply felt, and you are profoundly missed, yet your memory continues to uplift and motivate us to walk in faith and love.
