We had a very great reunion with Uncle Wayne the week before he passed away! my Brother Jimmy and I (Linda) went to his home in Orlando and drove him to Lexington to see his brother Sherman Turpin and then before he went back home we had a grill out with all the families too see Uncle Wayne! He really looked wonderful! So hard to believe in a week and a half he would be called to his eternal home ! I know he was greeted by his wife and son and his parents and his older brother my Dad Jim Turpin!! they are all having a glorious time together . RIP Uncle Wayne love and miss you From the Ohio bunch !! thats what he called us all!!

“ My deepest sympathies to the family. I only got to know Wayne for 5 short years. I saw him for years prior in the last row of church smiling with Kathleen.

He told me some great stories of their lives together as we sold tickets to the "200 Club" after Masses one year.

You are reunited with your true love, Wayne. Keep Smiling & rest in Peace.

*Love
Luca & Lynn Ruocco*
