

Mrs. Norva A. Jean Heacock

July 23, 1919 - July 30, 2013

Heacock, Norva A. (Jean), age 94 of Longwood, passed away on July 30, 2013.

Born in Washington, D.C., Jean spent much of her life in Arlington Va. She worked at the FBI where she met her husband Bert who was a Special Agent. They were married for 67 years. Jean celebrated her 94th birthday 1 week prior to her death. For that special occasion, her family wrote a poem to celebrate her long life. The poem is as follows:

Happy Birthday, Granny - today you're 94!
You have a life full of love, who could ask for more?
At 94 Granny, you've seen it all -
From the Depression and WWII to the Berlin Wall -
From typewriters with ribbons to computers that crash -
Where credit is king - instead of old-timey cash.
While things have evolved and changed through the years -
There is something that will never change - our precious Granny dear!
It's our love and appreciation for the person you are-
A Mom, a Granny - the best by far!
So enjoy your day with your family near -
'Cause you are truly a gift we will ever hold dear!

A loving wife, mother and grandmother, Jean is survived by daughters Carolyn Rand, and Sandy Zegetosky, 3 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

Jean's life will be celebrated in a private family service.
