

Oddys M. Wilson

June 15, 1933 - September 3, 2015

Oddys Wilson was born on June 15, 1933 in Chipley, Florida to the late Mr. and Mrs. Tilton and Claudia (McKinnie) Harmon. She was a loving and obedient child who loved to follow her father in the fields of their farm. She married for the first time to Louis Massalene. From this union three bright and beautiful daughters were born. She and Louis would move to Orlando where she made this her home for more than fifty (50) years. She would go on to marry two more time to the late Ira Monds and her last husband, the late George Wilson, who she cared for and nurtured through his sickness.

Oddys always wanted to become a nurse, but, never became a licensed one. She took care of her husbands and her grandmother Marylou McKinnie and worked at the Sunland Center taking care of children and adults with disabilities. A nurse in her heart and work. She made New Bethel her church home where for a time she served as an Owl and was known to make a good cornbread muffin for church functions. She was a great and loving Grandmother, Great Grandmother and Great Great Grandmother. She would nurture you and be real straight with you when you were wrong or hard headed. Oddys departed this life on September 3, 2015, not expected, but ready.

Oddys will be reunited with her parents and her brother, John Harmon, and two sisters Retha M. Brown, and Lillian Johnson whom she loved dearly.

Oddys leaves to cherish her fond memories 3 daughters, Gwendolyn (Lenell) Barnes, Beverly (William) Daniels and Patricia Massalene all of Orlando, FL. She also leaves eight grandchildren Florrita Barnes, Tawanda Massalene, Lenell Barnes, Jr., Tyronzia Barnes, Kenneth Walker, Yolanda Massalene, Teresa Daniels and Laquinda Barnes all of Orlando, FL., also a host of great grandchildren, great great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
