“ I have so many memories of Oliver. . .all sweet recollections of experiences with him. I first met Oliver in my son's front yard when my son introduced me to Oliver, and I just hugged Oliver. I believe his heart remembered that hug as I also have. Every time I would cross the street, Oliver watched out for traffic and would give me the 'go ahead' when he knew traffic was clear. I loved Oliver dearly and send my love and condolences to his family and his caregivers. His physical absence I will always feel as he took a piece of my heart with him.
