

Omada Idachaba

October 25, 1969 - February 21, 2016

Omada Idachaba, MD, was born on October 25th, 1969 in Chicago, Illinois and passed away on February 21st, 2016 at the age of 46 in Orlando, Florida. Omada was the second of six children of the late Prof. Francis Sulemanu and Dr. (Mrs.) Esther Aye Idachaba. Her full name “Omadaja”, when translated from Igala, literally means “Priceless”. And priceless she was.

Omada was a source of encouragement to her entire family both far and near. Her life was one of organization, discipline, beauty and grace. Omada was a highly principled person and her principles were guided by the word of God. Her faith in her God will continue to be an inspiration to those she has left behind. Her unwavering faith not just when life was great but when life was hard will continue to inspire us. May we all be able to say that we held on to our God to the very end of our lives, through the good times and through the not so good times.

As the LORD would have it, even though Omada did not have any biological children of her own she impacted the lives of several children as she diligently and faithfully served in Children's Ministry at her church. She was the dear, fun and “happening” Aunt to her nephews and nieces, Siji, Seyi, Whanyi, Elem, Ogo, Ire, Iko, Uma, and Anibe. She is survived by her Mother Dr. (Mrs.) Esther Aye Idachaba, and her siblings Achenyo Idachaba (Nigeria), Ileanwa Idachaba (Nigeria), Ojoru Osunkoya (Atlanta, GA), Ojochide Frank (Fuquay-Varina, NC), and Unekuojo Idachaba (Nigeria).

We take solace in the words of 2 Timothy 4: 7-8 which we believe applies so well to Omada- Omada fought the good fight, Omada finished her race, Omada kept the faith and now will receive her crown of righteousness from her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. To God be all the glory!
