

Orestes Lorenzo Gomez

February 2, 1931 - February 10, 2017

Orestes Lorenzo Gomez (09/02/1931) peacefully passed away this February the 10th surrounded by his family. He is survived by his wife Onelia, three sons, six grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Orestes grew up working the tobacco and sugar-cane fields of central Cuba along his family to subsist . At the age of 14 he has earned enough to buy his first pair of shoes ever. There were no schools he could attend during his childhood, but he sought guidance to learn to read. From that moment, he fell in love with books and embarked in a quest for knowledge that transformed him into a vastly educated man.

Despite the extreme poverty and hardships of his early years he was never afraid of material scarcities. Instead, he saw virtue and freedom in modesty. He never possessed more than he needed, and always had plenty to share. Giving was the act that fulfilled him the most. He could work quietly, long and hard, just for the joy of giving something to someone in need. Orestes saw always the value of character above all things. His offspring hope to live to his legacy.

“ Siento mucho su pérdida se que están pasando por un momento doloroso por eso me gustaría compartir con ustedes un texto de la biblia se encuentra en Juan 5:28,29 donde Jehová Dios promete que volveremos a ver a nuestros seres queridos que han muerto pues serán resucitados. Que bonita esperanza para quienes hemos perdido algún familiar en la muerte. Me despido y los acompaño en su dolor.
