Wathall Carter, Orlando will always be remembered for his smile and genuine personality that touched those that knew him and even those that didn't. At a young age he became one of Michael Jackson's biggest fans and perfected every dance move and knew every song. It was common to see him walking around with his white glove on one hand and bible in the other. He loved to dance and preach the word from the Bible and was a God loving man. Sports was another one of his passions playing football, position wide receiver in High school and later in life Coaching and Refereeing youth in basketball. No matter his mood if you were lucky to have crossed his path you were blessed with his loving smile and words of encouragement. He was a jack of all trades and had the ability to do whatever he put his mind to.

Orlando will be deeply missed by so many people, but he will continue to live through those that love him. Although your wings were ready our hearts were not.

“ He was my best friend in the best thing that ever happened to me. Taught me everything I know about God. I will miss him for the rest of my life and never stop loving him!! I will miss him for the rest of my life and never stop loving him!! When I think of him a million memories flood my mind.. funny mostly and heartwarming. Because of him, I know God and know what it's like to truly be loved! He fulfilled his purpose here on earth and I know God said "well done" when Orlando arrived at the gates of Heaven. Heaven has the best person 🧡💜💜 Give Brittany and your mom a hug for me ☐ I love you eternally and can't wait to hug you again in Heaven ☐🙏
